

EDS 130- Typical and Atypical Human Development

Name:

Case Study

Child's name (first only): _____

Child's Current Age: _____

Child's Diagnosed Disability: _____

Caregiver's relationship to child: (parent, grandparent, foster care, etc.) _____

Does the child have an IFSP or IEP? _____

Case Study Interview:

Current agency or school services: (speech, OT, PT, etc.) _____

Description of Services:

Caregivers Perception of Services:

Case Study Information:

- How has the development of cognitive skills for this child been affected by the diagnosed disability?
- How have the social and emotional skills of this child been affected by the diagnosed disability?
- How have the communication and language skills of this child been affected by the diagnosed disability?
- How have the motor skill areas of this child been affected by the diagnosed disability?
- How have the services provided supported the development of these areas?
- What has been the most challenging aspect of being the primary caregiver of this child?
- What has been the most rewarding aspect of being the primary caregiver of this child?
- What advice would you give other caregivers?
- Other comments: